FOREWORD

The Centennial has been celebrated, and our reverence for the past must burn alongside our hope for the Sewanee of a century to come. Yet, does not each of these flames eternally rest in the heart of the other? We see a new Sewanee, the Sewanee of the future all around us. Still, how "new" can Sewanee ever be? The things that are this University are eternal, yet always fresh; they are of the first century and the twentieth, they are Greek and English and American, and always Southern.

But the purpose of your CAP AND GOWN for 1959 is not to be a Janus to the past and future; we have tried to catch, and suspend, that illusive moment of the now—the pulse of today. On her ability to do this rests the value of your book. And may this moment be so suspended that time will serve only to hallow it.

In the light of her new century, as in the dawn of her first, the University builds . . .

in athletics . . .

for tomorrow . . .

... and for
the social graces

A university, before it was called a "plant" or a "system," was known to its members as a "company of scholars." This happy definition emphasized the common interests of professor and student alike, making every member of the company a learner, a seeker after knowledge. Such an academic utopia would be Dr. Bruton's natural habitat. The achievements he most admires are those of the intellect; and his heroes, like Newton, forever voyage through strange seas of thought.

Whether Dr. Bruton would have been happier with the great scholars of the Renaissance we cannot say, but certainly Sewanee has been happy with him. Since 1925, the year he came to this Mountain, Sewanee has commanded his loyalty and his services. His main objective has been the well-being of the University and of the Sewanee community, both of which he has served in many ways. He is Head of the Department of Mathematics, and Dean of Administration of the University. In the latter capacity he has been a veritable pillar of strength. Outside of the University itself, he has served as Chairman of the Franklin County Board of Education, and as President of the Sewanee Civic Association. His hobbies are tennis, bridge, and good conversation—in each of which he excels, as many a fallen foe can attest!

For what he has meant to Sewanee we dedicate this 1959 CAP AND GOWN to DR. GASTON S. BRUTON.

Dedication

The Chancellor

The Right Reverend Thomas Neely Carruthers is now in the third year of his six year term as Chancellor of the University of the South. Bishop Carruthers, Bishop of South Carolina, is a familiar figure at Sewanee. He received his B.A. degree from the University in 1921 and his B.D. from St. Luke's in 1929. He taught in the English Department of the College and has been a member of the Board of Regents for several terms. In 1940, he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity, bestowed upon him by the University.

Since his ordination in 1926, Bishop Carruthers has served as rector of St. Peter's Church, Columbia, Tennessee; Trinity Church, Houston, Texas, and Christ Church, Nashville, Tennessee, until he was consecrated Bishop of South Carolina on May 4, 1944. Bishop Carruthers is the former president of the Episcopal Church's Fourth Province which includes fifteen dioceses in nine southern states.

The Chancellor acts as president of the Board of Trustees, ex-officio member of the Board of Regents and is a bishop of one of the University's twenty-one owning dioceses.

The Right Reverend Thomas Neely Carruthers, D.D., The Bishop of South Carolina and Fourteenth Chancellor of the University of the South.

COLLEGE

Vice-Chancellor

Few liberal arts institutions are fortunate enough to have as president a man who represents the scope of intellectual interest which it is their purpose to stimulate in their students. Sewanee is so favored in the person of Dr. Edward McCrady, Vice-Chancellor of the University of the South. The range of Dr. McCrady's activities extends from biology and speleology to music, art, and theology. In previous years he has received international renown in his capacity as senior research biologist at Oak Ridge. Like a Renaissance man he moves with equal ease in these varied fields, and the result is an emphatically negative answer to the modern myth of the specialized man. Dr. McCrady comes from a family closely associated with Sewanee, but he was educated at the College of Charleston, B.A., the University of Pittsburgh, M.S., and the University of Pennsylvania, Ph.D. The son of an Episcopal minister, Dr. McCrady has been most successful in combining modern science with Christianity. His influence has extended far from his Mountain home as the spokesman of the Sewanee ideal throughout the world.

DR. EDWARD McCRADY
Vice-Chancellor of the University of the South

The Board of Regents

The Board of Regents, which is selected by the Board of Trustees, is the executive agency of the Board of Trustees. It is composed of three Bishops, three Priests, and six laymen of the Episcopal Church with the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor serving as ex-officio members. It has the power of granting honorary degrees and of the government and maintenance of the University except the duties particularly reserved to the Board of Trustees. This year the Board approved plans for the new Fine Arts Building.

The Deans

DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

Dr. Robert S. Lancaster, as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, is responsible in matters of academic rules and requirements. He is consulted in questions about course credits, changes in courses, and academic records. He also serves as Professor of Political Science.

DEAN OF ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Gaston S. Bruton acts as both Dean of Administration and head of the Department of Mathematics. It is also his duty to act as Vice-Chancellor during the Vice-Chancellor's absence from the University. Dean Bruton is responsible for the physical maintenance of the University properties. This entails coordinating campus housing and regulating matrons and proctors in the dormitories.

DEAN OF MEN

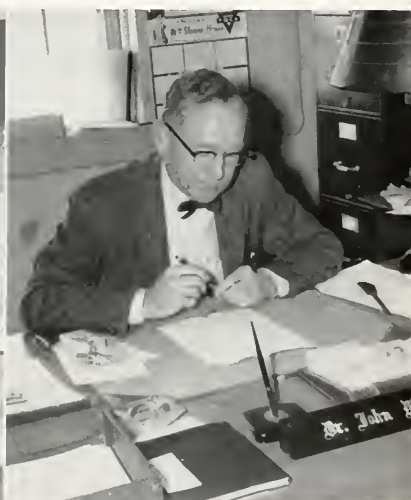

Dr. John M. Webb is serving his second year as Dean of Men this year. He is Professor of History, maintaining a full teaching schedule. Problems concerning student discipline fall under the jurisdiction of the Dean of Men. Dr. Webb is chairman of the faculty committee on student discipline and is in charge of student room assignments.

Sewanee's Matrons

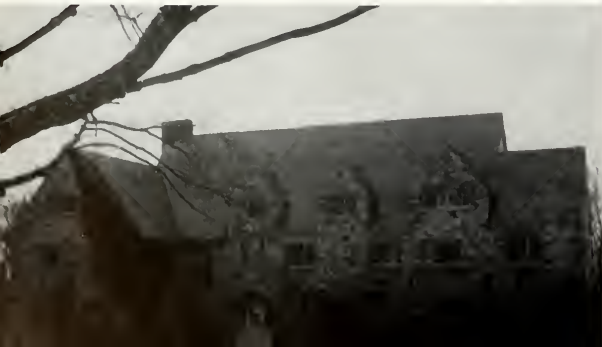

Hunter Hall

Mrs. Polly Brooks Kirby-Smith, of Gailor Hall, and Mrs. Amy Brooks Eggleston, of Hunter, entertain their "boys" at the party they give together each Christmas.

Our Miss Polly is retiring, and the hearts of all of us here, and of Sewanee alumni since the class of 1940, feel just a little emptiness. Those who lived in Hoffman anytime from 1940 to 1952, those who stayed in Gailor since it was finished in 1952, and ATO's who have been able to sit with her at meals in Magnolia and Gailor can never forget her warm and ready smile and the influences of her love for us and Sewanee for nearly two decades. For Miss Polly is a part of Sewanee; she grew up here and has made Sewanee her life. She is the symbol of the Southern Tradition that we will all feel in our lives when a consciousness of it has passed away. To all of the matrons, who are so much a part of our lives, we give our thanks and love, and although the University will lack something without her, Miss Polly leaves us so much, and she takes our devotion with her.

THEOLOGY

THE VERY REVEREND GEORGE MOYER ALEXANDER
Dean of the School of Theology

Dean of the School of Theology

The School of Theology is a seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Established in 1878 as a constituent college of the University of the South, it is under the same administration as the College of Arts and Sciences, but has its own dean and faculty.

The Very Reverend George Moyer Alexander is serving his third year as Dean of the School of Theology. He received his B.A. and B.D. degrees from Sewanee.

Dean Alexander has served in several parishes in the Diocese of Florida and served as editor of the "Florida Forth" magazine for five years. He also served as secretary of the Diocese of Florida. His last parish before coming to Sewanee was Trinity Church in Columbia, South Carolina, during which rectorship he was for six years a member of the University's Board of Regents.

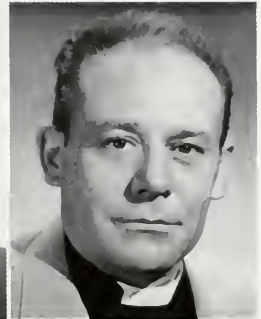

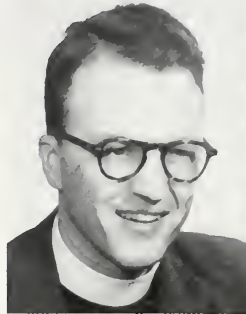

Before coming back to Sewanee, Dean Alexander took a year's work at the General Theological Seminary studying all phases of theological school work.

Alpha Tau Omega

Before the Great Fire of March twenty-first. (From the 1956 CAP AND GOWN)

1959 is a year long to be remembered by members of the Sewanee Community and ATO's all over the country; for early on the morning of March 21st, a fire with cause unknown destroyed the oldest ATO house in existence, one of the oldest fraternity houses in the South. Tennessee Omega was founded at Sewanee in 1877, and in the total destruction of the blaze, priceless objects from two centuries were lost.

Omega opened the year, however, with an extremely successful rush which set the pace for a year filled with successes in fields in which ATO has excelled in the past: Scholarship, athletics, organizational representation, and social activities. During the previous two years, ATO made a sweep of all three major trophies for scholarship, intramural and varsity athletics; in addition to claiming leaders in many other campus activities as well.

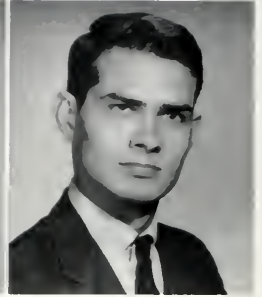

With the support of our alumni, the traditions of the past, and a strong membership for the future, we have the potential for building an even stronger chapter as we build a new house.

Beta Theta Pi

Gamma Chi of Beta Theta Pi was founded in 1948 at Sewanee, and in that time has achieved a position of prominence among the fraternities on the Mountain. This year has been a very successful one for the chapter, the high point of the term being the completion of the new fraternity house. This house represents a dream-come-true for the brothers, and has been the center of many activities during the year. Homecoming, Midwinters, and the new Spring Weekend were very well celebrated in the new facilities.

Several of the brothers have attained positions of prominence on campus during the year, in keeping with the tradition that the national fraternity, one of the country's oldest, enjoys. A successful pledge program brought valuable new members into the chapter and an even better year is predicted for 1960.

BETA THETA CHAPTER

Installed 1883

Delta Tau Delta

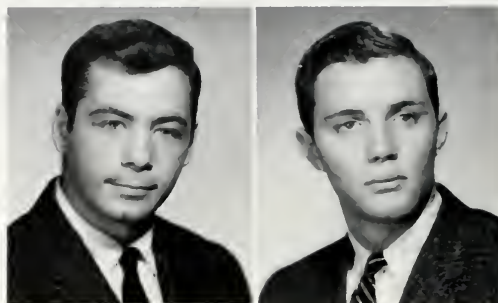

Beta Theta Chapter of Delta Tau Delta, which was founded in 1883, this year celebrates its seventy-sixth year on the mountain. An extensive social program was planned, including Homecoming, Midwinters and the new University Spring Weekend. The party weekends were all tremendous successes and a good time was had by all.

A very good rush again swelled the chapter to near capacity and hopes were high for achievements in scholarship, athletics, and campus leaderships. Members of the chapter held prominent positions on the publications staffs, as well as other important campus offices. It is expected that this year will be, all-around, one of the best in recent years.

Kappa Alpha Order

Alpha Alpha Chapter of Kappa Alpha Order began its seventy-sixth year at Sewanee having had a very successful previous year and looking forward to a more successful year to come. The year was started with the most promising pledge class in the memory of the brothers. KA boasts many university leaders in publications, athletics, scholarship, social and honorary fields. KA was awarded the scholarship trophy for the first semester, and at the time the CAP AND GOWN went to press, was the leading contender for the athletic trophy.

The social activities of the chapter were upheld with the very successful Homecoming (which was highlighted by the KA float), Midwinters, and Old South Weekends. With the unmatched strength of the present chapter, the high KA standards of the past, and the goals for which the chapter is striving, Kappa Alpha has all indications for the most successful year in the recent history of the chapter.

Kappa Sigma

Omega chapter of Kappa Sigma once again began its year with a very successful rush which netted 18 men, three of whom were elected to honorary campus positions. The chapter was well represented in campus offices and key organizations, and it looked forward to a year of active participation in athletics and maintaining its high academic average. Continued improvement in intra-mural success and on the chapter house were among the basic goals of the fraternity.

The year's social activities were highlighted by the election of Brother Jim Gilliland's sister, Ann, as Sewanee Homecoming Queen in November and the Star and Crescent weekend in April. Social functions were maintained at a high level throughout the year with numerous informal parties.

In reviewing the many successes of the past year, Kappa Sigma is anticipating another equally successful year in all phases of campus life.

Phi Delta Theta

Tennessee Beta of Phi Delta Theta started off its seventy-fifth year with a most successful rush season led by Brother Bob Hare. As usual the Phis were right on top in the sports department, coming in a close second in the football scramble. The entire chapter thought that the Homecoming weekend was the very best party ever held on the Mountain until the riotous Midwinters weekend hit the Mountain, proving that the wild "Mountain Goat" still lives in the Cumberland Mountains.

The Pledge Tea was held in honor of William (Bill) Cocke III, a young alumnus of the chapter who is on the staff of the English department. It was agreed by all who attended to be one of the best teas ever held on the Mountain. The Phis have almost conquered their pesky scholarship problem under the leadership of Brothers Albert Frierson and Page Faulk, and under the guidance of Oscar N. Torian, the chapter advisor.

Phi Gamma Delta

Gamma Sigma Chapter of Phi Gamma Delta received its charter from the Fraternity in 1919, and has been very active on the Mountain since this date. The Gamma Sigma Chapter has been very successful in setting high goals of excellence in every field.

The Fijis have repeated their successes of the previous years this year by winning the House Decoration Award, intramural football, intramural basketball, and a number of second and third places in the other intramural races. Also the Fijis have given great support to the varsity sports, including captains and many other outstanding players. The social calendar this year included the annual Chi Omega party during rush, a Homecoming party, Christmas clothing drive, Pledge tea, Pig Dinner and the ever growing Fiji Island Party which included the Black Diamond Formal. The Fijis rank in the upper third scholastically.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Tennessee Omega chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, the first chapter of its fraternity to own its own house, this year celebrated its seventy-eighth anniversary at Sewanee.

This year the SAEs have engaged, with excellent records in intramural and varsity sports, in campus leadership activities, and in the social affairs of the University year.

Founder's Day and SAE Weekend, the main events in the social season, and the University party weekends, in addition to several informal parties, gave the Sig Alphas a full round of activities during a very profitably spent year.

Sigma Nu

Beta Omicron Chapter of Sigma Nu this year celebrated the sixty-ninth year of its founding at Sewanee.

An extensive social program was planned including a tea, held in January, in honor of Mr. Arthur Ben Chitty. Formal and informal parties kept spirits high during a year highlighted by the annual White Rose Weekend.

As in the past, members of Sigma Nu were active in athletics, as well as in campus activities. This year has been very successful, and Sigma Nu is looking forward to the year to come with even greater expectation.

The Pan-Hellenic Council is the students' regulatory body for the nine national fraternities on the Mountain. Fraternity presidents or other elected or appointed representatives belong to the group. Its main functions are to regulate the running of the fraternity system and to work with the administration in furthering the common aims of the school and fraternities. It is most active during Rush Week, which it regulates and defines, and in sponsoring the annual Help Week programs.

Second Semester President

Student government at Sewanee is provided by the Order of Gownsmen. Membership in the Order is conferred on juniors, seniors and special students in the College who have attained 60 semester hours and a 2.00 average for the previous semester. Students in the School of Theology are also awarded the gown but do not vote.

The official functions of the Order of Gownsmen are carried out through its several committees following action by the Order sitting as a body. Its functions lie in the chartering of new student organizations, conducting official business between the administration of the University and the students, attending to problems of student discipline, especially freshmen discipline, and in supervising the sale of class rings. The principal committees of the Order are the Executive Committee, the Discipline Committee, and the Ring Committee. The Executive Committee is made up of the president, the vice-president, the secretary of the Order, and one Gownsmen representative from each fraternity and one from the Independents. Its duties include the scheduling of meetings of the Gownsmen, and in conducting the business of the Order. The Discipline Committee also has one representative from each fraternity and one from the Independents and usually meets once a week to assess penalties against students who have disobeyed the rules of the Order. The Ring Committee is responsible for the sale of class rings to juniors and seniors desiring them.

An ordinance was passed by the trustees in 1871 prescribing that caps and gowns be worn by students and faculty of the University, following the Oxford-Cambridge traditions upon which Sewanee was to be modeled. Two years later, in 1873, William Porcher DuBose, at that time Chaplain of the University, arranged for junior and senior students to be excused from military drill, and organized the Order of Gownsmen. Membership was limited to graduate students, and to the more advanced undergraduates. Since its founding, the Order has steadily taken on more responsibility in the handling of student affairs.

The Proctors

EVERETT McCORMICK
Head Proctor

The Proctors form the necessary link between the Administration and the students, a position which carries with it obligations and responsibilities to both. Among their several responsibilities, the Proctors enforce the rules of the University, and handle the various and continuous problems which arise in the dormitories. They also carry out supervision when needed in the chapel, the dining hall, and on other parts of the campus. At the close of each year, the Proctors meet and elect new Proctors, which are in turn approved by the Administration. Because of the responsibility of such a position, only those students considered to be reliable, competent, and conscientious are chosen. Appointment, then, to the position of Proctor carries honor and prestige, and it is one of the highest honors a man can receive while attending Sewanee.

The Honor Council is composed of two seniors, two juniors, one sophomore, one freshman, and three theological students, elected annually by their respective classes. Each student who enters the University is asked to sign the Honor Code, and, by doing so, he promises not to violate the Code in any way during his years at Sewanee. The Honor System plays an important role in the distinctiveness of Sewanee life, in that examinations and quizzes are virtually unsupervised. Meeting seldom, the Honor Council convenes only when there is a case to be presented to it. When such a case is presented to the Council, its members study the facts carefully and decide whether or not the Code has actually been violated. If it has, they recommend to the Dean of the College that the offender be requested to withdraw from the University. Thus the observance of the Honor Code and the trust and privileges accorded the students because of its existence, is not taken lightly. It is indeed a credit to the University of the South, its Administration, and its student body that the Council so rarely meets.

Publications Board

DR. MONROE K. SPEARS
Chairman

The Publications Board is the heart of the smooth and successful running organs of expression at Sewanee. The editors and business managers of the three official student publications, the Sewanee Purple, the CAP AND GOWN, and the Mountain Goat, serve in an ex-officio capacity as members of the Board. It is very significant that free rein is given to each in the policy to be followed in the respective publications. The Board is headed by Monroe K. Spears, editor of the nation's oldest literary quarterly—the Sewanee Review, and Dr. Robert Degen, assistant professor of economics. The Board's primary functions are to receive and approve nominations for the editors and business managers of the student publications, to follow the progress of the publications during the year, and to supervise the allocation of publications funds to the organizations. With the inclusion of three faculty members selected by the Vice-Chancellor, two students elected from the Order of Gownsmen, one member of St. Luke's faculty, and one theological student, the Board represents a vital cross section of campus interest and activity and maintains the smooth functioning of the publications.

Mountain Goat

Under the firm, capable, efficient, creative and imaginative editorship of its editor Tommy Kirby-Smith the Mountain Goat was again a smashing success and once again asserted its position on the campus as the students' most beloved publication. The CAP AND GOWN can hardly express its profound admiration for what this magazine has accomplished for Sewance, and can only offer, in its own humble way, the most laudatory encomiums.

Representing only the very best of student writing, the Goat included action-packed FICTION, side-splitting HUMOR, perceptive CRITICISM, and POETRY with SYMBOLS, MYTHS, and METAPHORS. Dr. Charles T. Harrison, head of the English department, is rumored to have said: "The wonderful and worthwhile creations in this (magazine) are totally finalized."

The Mountain Goat, named for that horny denizen of the crags, was first organized in 1925 and continued to procreate spasmodically until the outbreak of the Second World War. A magazine of somewhat similar aims appeared in 1948, titled the Helikon, but this publication, lacking the fertile vitality of the Goat, suffered a speedy demise. Finally in 1951 the Goat itself was re-organized under a subsidy from the University, and has continued publication ever since.

The Sewanee Purple, the Mountain's newspaper, is "the official organ of the students of the University of the South." Like the other publications under the governance of the Publications Board, the Purple is edited and managed by undergraduates selected through campus-wide elections. The Purple is published regularly once a week throughout the academic year—on Wednesday evenings. Although it gives competent coverage to all events of interest on the campus, it far surpasses the minimum requirements of a college newspaper by publishing weekly editorials and letters-to-the-editor on controversial and stimulating topics, movies, books, music reviews, and interesting features. It is printed by the University Press.

The 1959 Cap and Gown

ALEX VAUGHAN
Editor

Editing the CAP AND GOWN is not so much a job as a growing, and if the CAP AND GOWN grows, its editor must grow too, or there's no book at all. In September, he has no doubt that this will be the definitive CAP AND GOWN (or definite yearbook, for that matter) and will be the model for all who come after. But when things begin to go wrong, and SOMETHING is always going wrong, the editor knows that this nebulous "they" which seemed so competent in September, has leagued with the devil from December to April.

BRUCE SAMSON
Business Manager

It is "their" errors which will keep him up here after Commencement licking stamps and sending out yearbooks.

But by May the Editor knows that the mistakes are his alone and without the "they" there would be no book at all. So it is to "them" that I extend my gratitude for their co-operation and patience and to Sewance my thanks for the chance to grow with this book. For if anything on any page of this 1959 CAP AND GOWN means something to any one of its readers—it means that much and more to your editor.

The highest recognition of scholastic achievement at the University of the South is membership in Phi Beta Kappa. This organization is open to all students in the College with a grade-point average of 3.7 for five semesters or 3.5 for seven semesters work. This requirement is very rigid, and consequently only the most capable and hard working of the student body are able to fulfill it.

Phi Beta Kappa was originally founded at the College of William and Mary in 1776 as a literary social fraternity. The Tennessee Beta Chapter was organized at Sewanee in 1926 when the University's academic standing was approved.

At the end of each semester Phi Beta Kappa awards a scholarship trophy to the fraternity whose members maintain the highest academic average. As this cup was destroyed in a fire this year, a new one will be purchased for the Awards.

Phi Beta Kappa holds an initiation ceremony shortly after the close of the first semester in each school year. All those who are then qualified are awarded membership in the order.

Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership fraternity, was organized to give student leaders in fields other than scholarship the kind of recognition that they deserve in very much the same way that Phi Beta Kappa recognizes scholastic attainment. Membership in the organization is limited to three per cent of the student body, and to gowmsmen. It is evidence of a well-rounded personality and of exceptional leadership ability, since eligibility is determined on the basis of a point system, which is arranged so that a sufficient number of points can only be acquired by excellence in several different fields. These various fields of endeavor include scholarship, student government, athletic ability, publications, speech, and dramatics. But aside from concrete accomplishments, a great deal of emphasis is placed on personal character.

The national organization of Omicron Delta Kappa was founded at Washington and Lee University, Virginia, on December 3, 1914. The Alpha Alpha circle of the fraternity was chartered at the University of the South in 1929. At Sewanee, Omicron Delta Kappa has demonstrated that it is not an inactive organization. In addition to providing a measure for personal excellence, it has served to bring outstanding leaders in all fields into close association; and by voting various faculty members to membership, it has furthered faculty-student understanding.

From every senior class the most outstanding members are selected for listing in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." Nominations for this honor are made by the Executive Committee of the Order of Gownsmen, which each year chooses the students that it considers best qualified to represent Sewanee in the publication. Some of the criteria used in selecting the students are personal character, scholarship, extracurricular participation, leadership in student affairs, initiative, and promise of future usefulness. Representatives for listing in "Who's Who" are selected by more than 650 colleges and universities in the United States and Canada each year. The idea behind the publication is to present a sort of atlas of collegiate leadership and to inspire effort in the fields of scholarship and extra-curricular activities as well. Aside from the national recognition which is realized by inclusion in "Who's Who," local election by students themselves gives the seniors who are elected recognition for their four years of work.

Membership in Blue Key, national honor fraternity, is based on ability in many fields of collegiate endeavor. These include not only scholarship, leadership, athletic ability, character, and work in student activities, but potentiality for future growth as well. New members for Blue Key are tapped for membership at Homecoming and Spring dances. This fraternity sponsors a large number of campus activities. They begin the year by sponsoring the Homecoming Queen Contest and presenting the winner with a bou-quet of roses. Also, the Intramural All-Star football game, the annual pre-season debate tournament, and the Sewanee Variety Show are services of Blue Key. Perhaps their major presentation for the year is the Inter-Fraternity Blue Key Sing. The ushers for the chapel services and other official functions of the University are also members of Blue Key. Thus, by grouping outstanding students into one organization, Blue Key works for the best interests of the campus and the Sewanee Community.

German Club

Founded in the nineteenth century, the historic German Club derives its name from a popular dance of the period. Its duties are many and important. The Club's primary function is the sponsoring, planning, coordinating, and financing of the principal dances held throughout the academic year. Membership in the German Club is limited to two men from each fraternity and two from the Association of Independent Men. Perhaps the largest single task of this group is the contracting of the bands for the dances. The club has brought some excellent bands to Sewanee this year, including the Andy Goodrich quintet. Also, their decoration of Gailor Hall for the gala events has been a top-notch job. Of course, the Club is also responsible for the selling of tickets, refreshments, and cleaning up after the dances. This year the Club was under the able guidance of Bob Gregg, who in turn was assisted by Mike DeMarko, vice-president; Stew Elliott, treasurer; and Bill Turner, secretary.

Purple Masque, the official student dramatic organization, constantly strives to improve the quality of theatrical endeavor at Sewanee and at the same time, to present interesting and cultural activities for those who form the audiences. "The Time of Our Lives," a Saroyan play, was the first presentation of the year. It featured Bob Gregg, Nick Albanese, and Gray Smith in leading roles. The Purple Masque plans to present two one-act plays in May. These will feature another drama by William Saroyan, "Hello Out There," interpreted by Jack Bush, and an original play with a jazz theme by Gray Smith.

Jack Bush, a Theological student, has ably taken over in the absence of Brinley Rhys, and as Director has produced consistently fine performances.

The Choir

One of the most active organizations on the Mountain, the University Choir, is directed by Mr. Paul McConnell. The thirty-voice choir provides the music for the daily and Sunday services throughout the year. An especially prepared anthem is presented each Sunday. Choir practice is held twice a week, on Monday and Thursday nights. In keeping with the custom of years gone by, the choir presented a series of special programs during the year. The most popular of these was the traditional Christmas Carol service. Containing a large segment of the student body, the choir is open to students of any religious denomination. During the past six years, the choir has recorded two albums of sacred music. The second was issued in 1955, under the RCA label, and was sponsored by the Music Club.

The Debate Team, sponsored by the Debate Council, consists of men who have shown interest and ability in forensics competition. The Team expresses the students' interest in both debating and oratory. The Debate Council, which grew out of the two now inactive debate societies, Pi Omega and Sigma Epsilon, is the governing board of intercollegiate and intramural public speaking at Sewanee.

In addition to holding on campus debates, the Debate Team competes with other schools throughout the year.

The Sewanee Automobile Club is one of the newest organizations on campus, having been formed in January of this year. An idea in the mind of several students for some time, the club was brought to reality this year with the aid of Captains Patton and Feeny of the ROTC department.

The purpose of this organization is to foster safety, enjoyment, and proficiency in the sport of motoring for the automobile enthusiasts of the area. Membership is open to any enthusiast regardless of whether or not he owns an automobile.

The club's activities include sponsorship of rallies and gymkhanas, participation in such events sponsored by others, and group trips to sports races. The officers elected by the charter members are Ken Rast, President; Gray Smith, Vice-President; Walter Crawford, Treasurer; and Secretary, Yerger Johnstone.

Pi Gamma Mu is a national honorary social science fraternity whose membership is composed of upperclassmen. This group inspires interest in the social studies by debates, lectures, and seminars on current political questions, in addition to holding regular closed meetings. Members of Pi Gamma Mu are regular contributors to the editorial pages of the Purple. In this way, the society is an indirect voice of the students concerning our present-day social problems.

Sopherim, the main purpose of which has been to bring together students interested in creative writing for study and criticism, has been a functioning body at Sewanee since its beginning in 1904. Established as a local organization through the efforts of William Alexander Percy, it has in time spread to other campuses, and a national fraternity, Sigma Upsilon, was built around it. At regular meetings held twice a month, there is analysis and criticism of the members' writing and, three times a year, consideration of short stories, poems, and essays of persons interested in joining the group. Sopherim's principal public service is to bring a prominent man of letters to lecture once a year at a meeting open to the entire student body. Mr. Andrew Lytle, SMA alumnus, novelist, and author of short stories lectured on the creation of the novel and on his latest novel The Velvet Horn. Members of the faculty are often invited to speak on topics of interest.

Music Club

The Music Club was founded ten years ago and consists of students, both musicians and non-musicians, with a sincere love of music. Its purpose is the broadening and stimulation of its members' musical interests, as well as the promotion of interest in serious music on the Mountain. This year the club helped to sponsor the Chattanooga Symphony Orchestra and Chamber Ensemble. Several student programs of jazz, song, and classical music were produced. Mrs. Erle Merriman, retired concert pianist, was presented in a recital. Membership in the Music Club is elective and is limited to twenty-five, but meetings are generally open.

A comparative new organization on the Mountain is the Radio Club, which attracts many licensed radio "hams" on the campus. Regular meetings are held, but the greatest activity of the group is directed toward practical experience in broadcasting with other "hams." The facilities used by the Radio Club are in the radio shack on the first floor of Magnolia Hall. Active correspondence between the members of the club and other "hams" throughout the country is maintained. The Club's call number is K4ETH.

The Student Vestry is made up of elected members from each class in the University, one representative from the Theological School, and one from SMA. This group works with the Chaplain on campus religious activities and helps to plan the Church budget. They also work to secure guest speakers for All Saints' Chapel and promote the reading of lessons in chapel by members of the Vestry and Blue Key. This year the Student Vestry has sponsored inquirers' classes for all interested persons.

The Acolytes' Guild of All Saints' Chapel is the organization that furnishes all the servers and crucifiers for the innumerable church services that are held during the year. In close conjunction with other service organizations at Sewanee, the Guild helps to sponsor the St. Mark's Milk Fund drive. This provides milk for the students in the local colored school.

The Sewanee Volunteer Fire Department is responsible for protecting the entire community of Sewanee from disasters caused by fire. This outfit has grown in efficiency during the past few years to the able group of firefighters that extinguished the disastrous ATO fire. The department is made up entirely of volunteers from the student body of the university who are selected after taking competitive examinations which test the student's knowledge of firefighting techniques and his common sense. This year's fire chief was Guery Davis with Fred McNeil as assistant fire chief.

The Waiters' Guild is the organization of the men who serve the meals in Gailor Hall. The Guild is divided into four teams of six men with their captains under a head waiter. The head waiter, Joe Griffin, and the assistant head waiter, Bob Kane, are responsible to the manager, Mr. Oates. The four captains and the head waiters form an executive committee which meets generally once a week to discuss problems connected with their work. The four teams rotate in serving the different dining room areas. A man gets off one day a week and serves three meals a day for the remainder of the week. The student waiters have a party the last half of each semester.

Sigma Pi Sigma, the Sewanee Physical Society, was organized in 1957 for those who have physics as a major interest. Sigma Pi Sigma hopes to find out and encourage undergrads whose interests are in physical science. At the monthly meetings, papers on the work of the members are read and discussed, books on science of current interest are reviewed, or guest lecturers speak. The Sewanee Physical Society took the lead in the formation of this local chapter of a national physics honor fraternity.

Pi Sigma Alpha Fraternity is the national political science honor fraternity. The Sewanee chapter, Gamma Sigma, was established on March 7, 1958, and the members were initiated by a group from Emory University. Student membership in the society is conferred upon no basis of selection other than that of scholastic achievement. Each chapter is encouraged to be a working organization throughout the academic year, functioning as an integral part of the political science department in the promotion of worthwhile extra-curricular activities related to public affairs. As stated in its constitution, Pi Sigma Alpha promises to "stimulate productive scholarship and intelligent interest in the subject of government." The chapter celebrated its conception with a banquet in March of this year.

As a result of the increased jazz enthusiasm at Sewanee, the Sewanee Jazz Society was formed this year. "The purpose of the above named society," as quoted from the by-laws, "shall be one of dedication to the development of an appreciative consciousness of Jazz, among the students and residents of this community. It is further our purpose to strive continually for an enlightened understanding of, and sensitivity to the elements and significance of Jazz among the members of this society, and, through the frequent presentation of quality jazz groups in concert, to stimulate enthusiasm."

The present and charter membership consists of six faculty members and fifteen students. Student membership is limited to fifteen upperclassmen, which are elected upon unanimous approval by the members of the Society.

The present officers are as follows: Gray Smith, President; Bernie Dunlap, Vice-President; Paul Alvarez, Secretary. Faculty advisors are Dr. Charles T. Harrison and Dr. A. Scott Bates.

During the second semester of this year, the Society was responsible for three highly successful concerts.

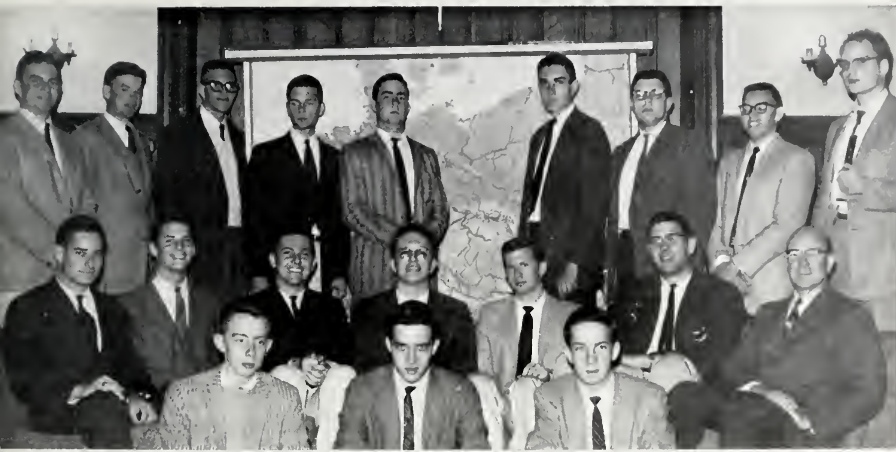

The Bellringers were formed in December 1958 by a group of four students interested in playing the Polk Memorial Carillon, then being installed. Having received instruction from Dr. Arthur L. Bigelow, carillon designer, and Mr. Albert Bonholzer, the University Carillonneur, the Bellringers play the carillon at weekly intervals and special occasions when a professional artist is not present. Membership in the organization is by examination and election.

Los Peones

To be eligible for membership in Los Peones one must have either taken Spanish or be taking it at the time of his initiation into the group or be acquainted with the heritage of that sunny land south of the border. The Los Peones keep alive the traditions of the oldest segment of post-Columbian North American culture. They wear as their distinguishing costumes, sombreros, serapes, and other articles of clothing reminiscent of Old Mexico. The Los Peones maintain that their purposes are to "stimulate conversational Spanish, promote fellowship on the campus, and study the social customs of Spain." The biggest push toward these goals usually occurs during the party weekends.

Highlanders

The Highlanders, a sort of society of Sewanee Jacobites known for their advocacy of mixed drinks only, represent the freedom and unrestraint of the Scottish highlands in the usually staid Sewanee ethos. This kilt and bagpipe coterie is primarily a social group meeting on party weekends and at other specified times throughout the academic year to raise their voices in a rousing toast or a carefree tune. The Highlanders are justly renowned for their inspiring impromptu entertainment at football games.

◀ Wellington Club

In the summer of 1943 a group of distinguished Sewanee students came to a "full realization of our great Anglo-Saxon heritage and wished to perpetuate their ideals." To this end they organized in the fall of that year the Wellington Club. Adopting a typically English form of government, headed by a white wiggged Prime Minister and a President of the Privy Seal, they pledged solemnly to preserve the Anglo-Saxon tradition, and to fight with diligence all Scotsmen, Saracens, and Spaniards. Of course, only those of proven noble birth and descent are allowed to sit among the honored peers, who personify in their manner and bearing the high English criteria of reserve, formality, and correctness.

After one decade's existence at Sewanee, the Wellington Club has dissolved the use of the wig and has begun the wearing of stately capes to all its functions.

Pipes and Drums Lead the Corps

The mission of the A.F.R.O.T.C. is to provide future Air Force officers and future citizens with an education tailored to meet the demands of modern Air Age. In addition it serves to train young men for service in the U.S.A.F. as pilots, observers, engineers, scientists, or administrative personnel. The Cadet Group is divided into two squadrons and the A.F.R.O.T.C. Band. The Arnold Air Society sponsors debates and lectures on current military questions, in addition to holding regular meetings. The Cadet Club this year combined its talents with those of the German Club in presenting the University's new Spring Weekend. Its activities, including the Elite Flight, Sabre Drill Team, the Rifle Team, and field trips to nearby bases enable the cadets to acquire a wealth of specialized knowledge and to develop latent talent, which subsequently will serve them well as a source of pleasure in their future careers.

Jubilant Tigers hoist Majors from Field

'58 Tigers—Undefeated

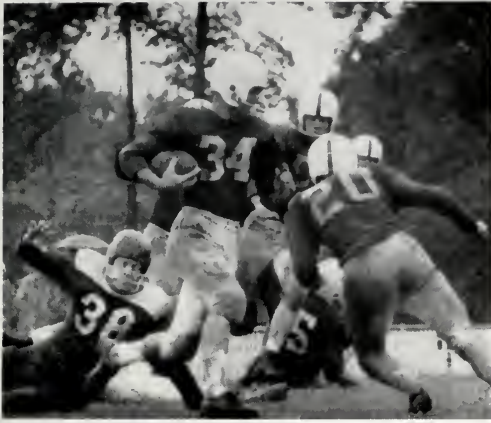

Majors with assistants Horace Moore and Clarence Carter

It seems only fitting that special recognition be given to the man most responsible for Sewanee's first undefeated, untied football season since 1899—Shirley Majors. Although he maintains that his players deserve full credit for the team's success, we know, as they know, that the enviable record could not have been compiled without the inspiration and instruction received from him. It is primarily through his efforts that Sewanee has changed from a perennial losing team to a winning one.

Last year in his first season as Sewanee mentor, he transformed a slow, sluggish team that had won only one game the previous year into a sound, aggressive, well-drilled eleven that posted an impressive 5-2-1 record. This year, of course, he bettered his remarkable first year showing, as he produced a powerful undefeated team.

We are all indeed grateful to Coach Majors and to his fine assistants, Horace Moore, Clarence Carter, and Athletic Director Walter Bryant for bringing victory back to the Mountain.

Breslin Pealed Every Saturday . . .

The 1953 edition of the Sewanee Tigers, combining a rapid striking offense with a rock-ribbed defense, provided the Mountain with its first perfect football season since 1899. Sparked by the Purple's Touchdown Triplets, Walter Wilder, Frank Mullins and Andy Finlay, the Tigers' smoothly oiled offense machine piled up a total of 285 points, a game average of over 35 points, Sewanee's hard-nosed forward wall, led by Max Young, Jim Gibson, Jody Gee, and Bobby Potts, limited opponents to a combined total of 28 points, an average of less than four points per game.

Two of the three seniors on the Sewanee eleven were selected for Little All-American honors—Captain Finlay, a 185 lb. full-back from Guntersville, Alabama, and Potts, a 195 lb. guard from Vicksburg, Mississippi. Finlay enjoyed an extremely successful year, scoring 68 points and leading the team in rushing with 776 yards. In addition to being an explosive ball carrier, Finlay was also a deadly blocker and a stellar defensive performer from his side back position. Potts, one of the Tigers' fastest linemen, was also a standout both offensively and defensively. His crushing blocks were responsible for much of the Tiger yardage, while his alert and aggressive defensive play was instrumental in limiting opposition to a net rushing average of some 81 yards per game.

SEPTEMBER 26—Sewanee officially opened its 1958 Season with a convincing 21-0 victory over Howard in Birmingham. The Tigers turned two first half breaks into scores and led at intermission, 14-0. Late in the first quarter center Dennis Thompson recovered a Howard fumble on the 45-yard line. Shortly thereafter, Walter Wilder scampered 25 yards for the tally. In the second period Ernie Cheek picked off a Bulldog aerial and went 56 yards for the other touchdown.

The Tigers scored the third and final touchdown in the fourth quarter on a sustained drive of 80 yards, Wilder climaxed the drive with a one yard scoring burst.

The game was highlighted by the excellent defensive performance of the Purple eleven. The Tigers' tight forward wall held the Bulldogs to a net rushing total of five yards, while the Sewanee secondary intercepted four Howard passes.

OCTOBER 4—Sewanee launched its home schedule in superb fashion with a lop-sided 47-0 win over Millsaps of Jackson, Mississippi. The Tiger offense, paced by Andy Finlay, Steve Pensinger, Mullins and Wilder, rolled up scores in every quarter. The Purple's defensive work was equally effective, limiting the visitors to an offensive total of 21 yards.

Jody Gee set up the first Sewanee touchdown when he recovered a Major fumble on the Millsaps' 20 yard line. It was only a few plays later that Wilder dashed the final three yards for the score. Shortly thereafter, Cheek recovered another Millsaps' fumble on the Majors' 33 yard line. Mullins then hit end Tommy Moore with a scoring pass. Pensinger set up the final touchdown of the second quarter with a 56 yard runback of an intercepted pass. Mullins added the score with an eight yard sprint.

Wilder scored his second touchdown of the afternoon early in the third quarter when he went 44 yards with an intercepted pass. Pensinger picked off another Millsaps' aerial and dashed 75 yards for the score. Mullins completed the rout with a scoring run of three yards and a 56 yard punt return.

OCTOBER 11—Led by the explosive running of Finlay and Mullins, the Tigers spoiled the homecoming activities of a determined Hampden-Sydney team with a 44-20 triumph. Sewanee tallied first in the contest when Jim Gibson blocked a H-S punt and Dale Ray picked it up and ran five yards for the touchdown. H-S fought back, scoring on a 67 yard drive to take an 8-6 lead. After the H-S score, the Tigers of Sewanee moved the ball 66 yards in nine plays for the touchdown to enjoy a 12-8 halftime lead.

Midway in the third quarter, Mullins sparked a 60 yard scoring drive and then passed to Finlay for the two point conversion. In the fourth period Mullins passed to Gibson for a touchdown, and then again for the extra points. H-S fought back with a sustained drive to make the score 36-20. Mullins quickly widened the margin to 44-20, scoring a TD from six yards out and then running for the extra two points.

OCTOBER 18—Sewanee, playing its second straight road game, continued its winning ways with a 48-8 defeat of Mississippi College of Clinton, Mississippi. Finlay, averaging 10 yards per carry, paced the Tiger offense, scoring three touchdowns. Wilder, Mullins and Thompson also got into the scoring act. Thompson's three interceptions were the defensive highlights of the game.

Finlay set up the game's first touchdown when he raced 69 yards to the Choctaw one yard line on the first play from scrimmage. He went the remaining one yard for the tally on the following play. A Mullins to Moore pass enabled Finlay to score again—this time from the two yard line. The final scoring of the first half came when an errant pass from center on an attempted punt went into the Mississippi end zone.

Sewanee scored immediately in the second half as Finlay sprinted 80 yards with the kickoff for the touchdown, making the score 22-0. The home team then grabbed their one and only touchdown on a well executed pass play. The Tigers came right back with another touchdown with Wilder scoring from the five yard line. Thompson added another score when he intercepted a Choctaw aerial at the midfield stripe and went the distance for the touchdown. Sewanee tallied twice more as Wilder and Mullins turned in scoring runs of six and five yards respectively.

OCTOBER 25 — Sewanee returned to the Mountain and gained its fifth victory in a 46-0 rout of Maryville. The visitors simply could not contain the powerful Tiger offense, nor could they advance against the Purple's rugged defense.

Sewanee gained its first score early in the first quarter when Finlay crashed two yards for the touchdown. Mullins completed the first half scoring with TD runs of six and 11 yards.

In the second half Sewanee turned the game into a run away. Finlay scored his second touchdown of the afternoon on a two yard buck. Jack Daniels returned a punt for 82 yards and a touchdown. Mullins picked up his third touchdown on a 32 yard scamper. Pensinger scored the final Tiger touchdown from the one yard line. Christy Hopkins completed the scoring when he tackled the Maryville quarterback in the end zone in the waning seconds of the game.

NOVEMBER 1—Sewanee celebrated the homecoming festivities with a 20-0 defeat of an inspired and determined Centre eleven. Playing on a muddy field, the heavy Colonel line put the Tigers to a rigid test.

Bobby Potts recovered a Centre fumble at mid-field late in the first quarter, and Sewanee went on to score its first touchdown. Wilder threw to Moore for 18 yards on the scoring play. The Tigers tallied again in the final minute of the first half on a sustained drive of 80 yards. Finlay gained the touchdown on a wedge play from the one yard line.

The third Sewanee touchdown came in the final seconds of the game. After Moore had recovered a Centre fumble on the Colonel five yard line, Mullins dashed over for the score.

NOVEMBER 8—Sewanee traveled to Lexington, Virginia, to gain its seventh straight victory, defeating Washington and Lee, 12-0. Playing before a large homecoming crowd, the fired-up Generals provided Sewanee with its toughest opposition of the season. The game was close, both on the score board and on the statistics chart, as W&L went all out to upset the heavily favored visitors.

Both Sewanee scores came in the first half as Wilder and Finlay scored on short yardage plunges. Wilder's touchdown came in the first quarter as the climax to a 67 yard drive. Finlay gained his touchdown in the second period on a three yard buck.

NOVEMBER 15—Sewanee returned to Hardee field to wrap up its undefeated season with a 47-0 rout of Southwestern of Memphis. Wilder, Mullins and Finlay paced the offense and a determined Tiger line, led by Gibson, Young and Potts, limited the Lynx to 64 yards total offense.

The first Sewanee score came early in the opening quarter when Wilder climaxed a 40 yard drive with an 11 yard TD sprint. In the second quarter the Tigers exploded for three touchdowns. Mullins scored the first one on a 64 yard end sweep. The second touchdown of the second period was made on a two yard plunge by Finlay as a climax to a 59 yard drive. Pensinger picked up the other touchdown after the Tiger hard charging forward wall had smothered the Southwestern punter on his own three.

In the third period Mullins went the final 10 yards of a 42 yard drive for the touchdown. In the fourth quarter Check set up a Sewanee touchdown with a pass interception on the Lynx eight yard line. Wilder carried the ball over for the score. The final score of the game came after a 64 yard march late in the fourth period. Wilder scored from the 10 yard line with his third TD of the afternoon.

After Sewanee had concluded the 1957-58 basketball season with an 11-9 record, plus first place in the Sewanee Invitational Tournament, it appeared that Coach Lon Varnell would have the nucleus of a very strong team this year. As Fall rolled around and the team reported for practice, Varnell, whose squad was depleted because of graduation and books, was again faced with the perennial task of building a team from the few returnees and a group of highly potential freshmen.

Snuffy Gelston, a 6'0" junior, was elected captain, and teamed with "Poochie" Tomlin at the guard position. Dick Dezell, the team's tallest member (6'7"), played center. Sparky Edgin, a highly touted freshman, occupied one forward position while Larry Burton and Larry Varnell divided time at the other forward slot. These starters were backed by: Bob Rust, Jim Waggoner, Tom Greer, Bucky Gearinger, Walt Wilder, Reed Finlay, and Bill Hannum.

The Tiger cagers opened their season with a 78-58 triumph over Athens College of Athens, Alabama. Led by Larry Burton with 19 points, Edgin, Gelston, and Dezell also hit in double figures.

The game Tigers next encountered heavily favored Vanderbilt, and only in the second half did the Vandy Team pull away to win 71 to 42, a margin not indicative of the game. The red-hot Florence State team dropped the Tigers 66-58, despite the accurate shooting of Edgin with 26 points. The scrappy Tigers came back to win the next two games, defeating Southwestern 69-56; (Edgin contributed 22 points) and the University of Chattanooga 52-44. Edgin and Burton scored 13 and 11 points respectively.

COACH LON VARNELL

Burton leaps high to capture rebound

Right before the Christmas Holidays, Sewanee left on a three-game road trip beginning with Florence State. In this exciting nip-and-tuck game, Edgin fired a short hook as the buzzer sounded to avenge the early season defeat at the hands of this same team. Travelling to a four-team tournament at Southwestern in Memphis, the team suffered a loss at the hand of Southwestern's balanced attack, 62-58, with Edgin and Burton leading Sewanee's scoring with 15 each. The next night Sewanee met Ouachita of Arkansas for third place honors and was defeated, despite Edgin's 23 points.

Burton in Action Again

After the Christmas Holidays, the Tigers invaded Mississippi College and were defeated 111-66, only to come back the following night to defeat Millsaps, 72-59. Dick Dezell led the scoring with 19 points, while Edgin, Varnell, and Wilder hit double figures. Returning home, the Tigers then trounced Howard 72-39; Edgin led the way with 26 points.

Defeats by Lambuth, 66-40, and Chattanooga, 91-73, slowed the Tigers down only to have them defeat Maryville's Scotties 75-61 as Gelston led the way with 21 markers. A classy Florida Southern team was the next victim, as the Tigers won in overtime, 77-67, with Tomlin scoring 26 points.

In a late season road trip, the Tigers lost to Birmingham-Southern, 68-63, but defeated Lambuth College 73-69. Gelston scoring 20 points. In the final home game of the year, the Tigers avenged a previous defeat by Birmingham-Southern's cagers, 48-46; Edgin scored 17 points.

The Tiger basketball team closed out the 1958-59 season with a third-place finish in the six-team Southwestern Tournament. In the opening round the Tigers were defeated by Lambuth, the eventual winner of the tourney, 84-63, but took third with a 54-49 victory over Millsaps. Tiger hopes for the future are bright indeed, as there are no graduating seniors and because of the steady improvement shown throughout the season.

Cross-Country

Sewanee's cross-country team, led by co-captains Fred Brown and Ned Harris, raced to one of the best seasons that it has had in several years, winning four dual meets, losing only to traditionally strong Roanoke College in a telegraphic meet, and winning the Southeastern Cross-Country Meet in Memphis from Mississippi College, Southwestern, and Howard.

This year's squad of eighteen, one of the largest ever, was ably coached by Dr. John Webb to victories over Bryan College, Southwestern, Tennessee Polytech (TP1), Vanderbilt, Mississippi College, and Howard. Score-wise, the greatest victory was over Southwestern, at Sewanee, when the Tiger harriers ran SW into the ground by a score of 19-41. The closest meet was that with Bryan, on the extremely hilly Dayton, Tenn., course, as Sewanee turned the trick by one point, 27-23. But definitely the most newsworthy meet was with Vanderbilt, as the host team went down 24-33 to Webb and Company.

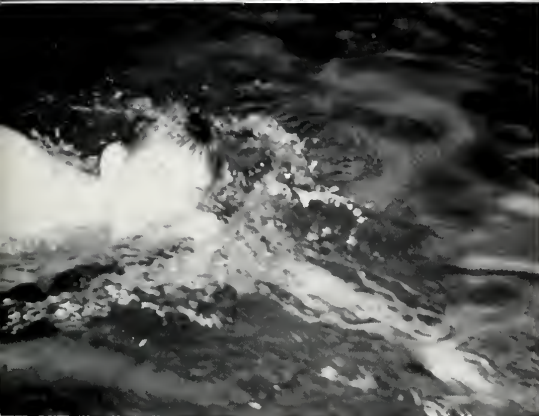

Sewanee's outstanding runner this year, and co-captain next year, was Chuck Swinehart. The 13 year old freshman placed first for Sewanee in all its meets and was defeated only by Bob Kerrigan of Bryan and Fred Abingdon of Vanderbilt. The remaining lettermen this year were Fred Brown, Ned Harris, Clay Farnham, Dan Tatum, Jerry Moser, Wiley Johnson (mgr.), and Geoff Sewall, who will share next year's co-captain honors with Swinehart. With at least four of these men expected to return to the squad next year, Sewanee should again have a very strong cross-country team.

Coach Ted Bitondo's strict training rules and strenuous workouts, lasting from October through February, paid off with a winning season for the Sewanee Swimming Team. Since it was Coach Bitondo's first year at Sewanee, we can look forward to more victorious seasons to follow. Mr. Bitondo was assisted by last year's coach, Mr. Hugh Caldwell.

The team, handicapped by non-returning lettermen, was able to defeat such formidable opponents as Vanderbilt, Clemson, U.T., the U. of Ga., Emory, Georgia Tech, Louisville, and Kentucky. Sewanee's only losses were to the Citadel and Eastern Kentucky.

Captain Tony Veal led the team through the season and was the only Sewanee tankman to remain undefeated. Veal set school records in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle events and, with Ken Rast, Charlie Robinson, and Pete Bailey, set a new 400 yard freestyle relay mark. Co-Captain Fred Brown and Buddy Wimer did a fine job in the backstroke events while Jim Dean and Chuck North swam butterfly. Freestylers Tony Veal, Charlie Robinson, Ken Rast, and Pete Bailey handled the sprints while Bob Kring and Drew Meulenberg swam the distance events. Pete Bickel, along with Jim Dean, swam breaststroke. Sam Rogers and Bob Kane performed well on both the one and three meter diving boards. Sterling Rayburn and Clem Jordan rounded out the squad.

Sewanee grapplers ended a highly successful season (4 wins, 3 losses) by tying Maryville for second place in the Southeastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Tournament. Coach Horace Moore's spirited squad shoved Chattanooga to fourth place to rectify their earlier 16-14 and 16-12 heart-breaking losses to the Mocs. Captain Curtiss Scarritt, Bill Craig, Max McCord and Ned Harris sparked the matmen by clinching individual second place medals.

In the dual meet against Birmingham Southern, freshman Bill Yates scored a thirty-seven second pin to lead the Tiger matmen to a smashing 28-8 victory and to provide one of the highlights of the 1959 season. Other triumphs posted were against strong Emory and Maryville teams.

With Curtiss Scarritt and Bill Craig graduating, the nucleus of next year's team will include six returning lettermen: Skip Lazell, Ned Harris, Jody Gee, Max McCord, Ronnie Gray, Frank Pelzer and Bill Yates.

Golf Coach Walter Bryant welcomed back five lettermen as the squad began working out on the Sewanee course, and is looking forward to a prosperous season. The team is being built around Flowers Crawford, Alex Looney, David Elliott, Ben Paddock, and Josh Forehand, the returning lettermen. Ted Stirling rounds out the promising squad.

This array of talent is expected to approach last year's fine record against some formidable opposition. The schedule included matches against Vanderbilt and tough Austin Peay.

Thus far, the golfers have been victorious over Mississippi Southern and Chattanooga. They fell to the University of Mississippi and Tulane while deadlocking Middle Tennessee. Other matches of the sixteen meet schedule include Auburn, Florence State, and the Southern Intercollegiate meet at Athens, Georgia.

Tennis

Although there are only two lettermen returning to the tennis team this year, the prospects for the season are very promising. Pete Stewart and Bill Marks will be playing again this year with Philip George, Gray Smith, Tate Greenwald, Fred Freyer, Joe Tucker, and Frank Middleton as the other members of the team. Dr. W. O. Cross has returned as head coach and he is assisted by Gordon Warden of the Seminary.

In their first match of the season Sewanee was defeated by a small margin of 5-4 by David Lipscomb College. The proposed schedule includes matches with Vanderbilt, Emory, Georgia, Cincinnati, Southwestern, Memphis State, Tennessee, and Middle Tennessee State College. If the potential of the team is fulfilled, Sewanee should enjoy a successful season.

Hanahan sprints home

Early this spring, around a nucleus of ten returning lettermen and some promising new freshmen, Coach Horace Moore started building his team.

Back for his third year is Capt. Bill Barnwell, running the 440 and mile relay. In the weight events, McCormick is throwing the discus while Bill Stewart is still a strong contender in the javelin. Versatile Peter Hanahan is prevailing in the 100, 220, and broad jump, and running the first leg of the mile relay. Last year's high scorer, Jerry Moser returns in the high, and broad jump, and high hurdles. Letterman Dave Hays, back after a year's absence, is showing winning form in the high hurdles, and mile relay. Phil Holland and Emory Ackerman offer their experience in the long and middle distances. Warner Montgomery runs the 100 and 220, and is aided by Walter Chastain in the low hurdles.

Freshmen Jerry Smith and Frank Kinnett are showing promise in the dashes while Fred Wunderlich is providing excellent potential in the weights and the javelin. Chuck Swinehart, of cross-country fame, is leading the distance men. In the pole vault, Rusty Frank is doing a creditable job.

Thus far the team has registered impressive victories over Bryant and Emory, giving them an excellent start toward the successful completion of their seven meet schedule.

Intramurals

As the CAP AND GOWN goes to press, PGD with 115 points holds a slight lead in the close, action-packed 1958-59 intramural race. KA is a very close second with 105 points. ATO, last year's winner, is third with 60 points, PDT is fourth with 55 points. Swimming, softball, tennis and golf are the sports remaining to be played.

Cross Country, the first event of the intramural year, was won by ATO. The Independents, led by individual winner Chuck Swineheart, placed second. SN, represented by large group of freshmen, finished third.

The first major sport in the intramural schedule was football. PGD, sparked by Poochie Tomlin and Jim Wisialowski, captured first place. Tailback Gray Haynes and end Bob McManis led PDT to a second place finish. ATO, headed by tailback Fred Devall, and versatile John Shepherd, grabbed the third position.

Volleyball was again taken by defending champions KA, led by high scoring Bruce Samson. PDT, sparked by Tom Tierney and Hugh Gelston, finished second. KS placed third.

First place in basketball was gained by PGD. Guard John Nichols and forward Joel Strawn paced the Fiji's to the crown. KA, led by Jim Link, Andy Finlay and John Jones, nailed down second place.

BTP with its team of Gary Steber and Bobby Adams won handball. The ATO twosome of Joe Tucker and Ed Stewart finished second. KA, with singles champion Bill Powe, took third.

Freshmen Frank Kinnett and Kemble Oliver led KA to first place honors in track. ATO, paced by Walter Wilder and John Shepherd, finished second. PGD and BTP placed third and fourth respectively.

Defending singles champ Dave Hayes once again led PGD to a first place finish in badminton. PDT on the strength of Hugh Gelston and Bucky Gearing, placed second. ATO finished third.

Yeah, I signed the petition!

Yes, dearie, down the hall and to the right.

"They're not like the others . . ."

It's all right, they're married.

The handwriting-on-the-wall so to speak.

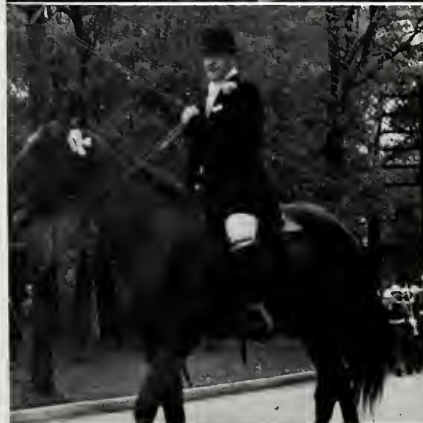

... what a bright world this would be

"I'll see you in my dreams . . ."

"C-a-l-l f-o-r P-h-i-l-i-p M-o . . ."

Leader of Men

"What a magnificent barbecue pit!"

Alfred Kinsey presents . . .

Hi, sports fans!

Blondes prefer gentlemen

"These old plays no longer please, since Their Majesties' return from the Continent."

"Ah, so, you are surprised . . ."

Mr. Frat Man, U. S. A.

"Ting-a-ling a-ling-ling . . ."

Mr. Britt, the camera!

Young man may I see your I. D. card?

"Comin' through the Rye."

Before

After

When you say "ulcer," smile!

"I love my girl—yes, I do—yes, I do . . ."

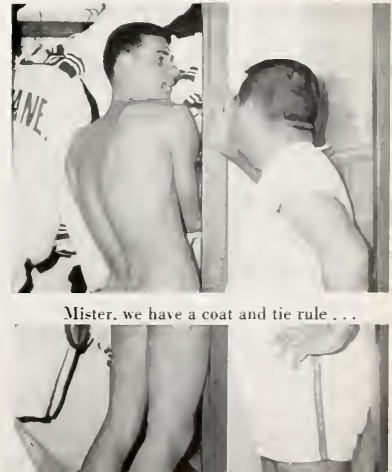

Gee. "A rose by any other name . . ."

The Apostolic Cessation

My God, are you a thinking man?

Mister, we have a coat and tie rule . . .

The Editor Expresses His Heartfelt Appreciation to . . .

Mr. John Benson, III, for his patience and very hard work—the former may have been excessive, but without the latter, there would have been no 1959 CAP AND GOWN.

Mr. Dan Eadie and Benson Printing Co. in general.

Mr. Robert Faerber and The Alabama Engraving Co. who must have found 36 hours in many days.

Mr. Arthur Chitty for his kind advice and assistance in reading proofs, late though I was.

Mr. Howard Coulson of Cowan and Mr. Ed Delbridge of Murfreesboro for their photographic skill.

Robbie Moore who has designed, undoubtedly, the best cover that any yearbook has or ever will have.

Colonel R. P. Moore for his wonderful caricature of Ernie.

Dr. Claude Saurbrei for his picture of St. Luke's Chapel.

My very staff.

Miss Grace Linton for Inspiration.
